

beauty
jury

EACH week, real puts the latest beauty products to the test using our very own jury made up of real women. This week, we asked the girls from Halifax Estate Agents in Waterloo to shimmer and shine in some of the latest looks in gold

MIDAS TOUCH: All that glitters is gold for this party season

TESTER: Sue Hughes, viewer, 43.
PRODUCT: Estee Lauder Hydra Lustre Lipstick with fluted tip, £17.
VERDICT: More expensive than I would normally pay but then you pay for quality. A lovely gold case, it looked very expensive, was a great lipstick which went on well and lasted as long as expected. It could be applied lightly for a paler colour for day time. This is great for this party season!
RATING: 9 out of 10.

TESTER: Connor, bar advisor, 39.
PRODUCT: Long Wear Lacquer, £1.
VERDICT: product was expensive at a colour I would normally wear a good part of the year to it's description it is long wearing and has lasted several days in my office I am pleased and therefore would be happy to buy it.
RATING: 10 out of 10.

TESTER: Helen Richards, bank cashier, 32.
PRODUCT: 2true Glitter Eyeliner, £1.91.
VERDICT: I don't normally wear eye liner so thought this would be too glitzy. However, I was surprised and pleased when I used it. I wore it for a special evening event and was surprised at the compliments I received. For people who use eye liner and want to create an eye catching look and be complimented then I would recommend they use this product
RATING: 10 out of 10.

TESTER: Pat Hughes, viewer, 64.
PRODUCT: Clinique Quick Eyes Cream Shadow £13.
VERDICT: I found that I needed to apply more than one application as the shadow seemed to just sink into the eye lid. The colour was quite transparent and I was disappointed with the lack of definition. I wear golds and golden browns daily but would not buy this one.
RATING: 4 out of 10.

